

Program Officer for Bangladesh

Application Deadline: 2 October 2023

Start Date: As soon as possible

Employment Type: Consultant, full-time (preferred); six-month contract with possibility of extension

Salary: Dependent on experience and location, according to the International Civil Service Commission (ICSC) scale

Location: Bangladesh

Position

The Global Network of Women Peacebuilders (GNWP) seeks a full-time Program Officer for Bangladesh either based in the country or in a similar time zone for six months with the possibility of extension. The Program Officer will support advocacy, research, planning and programmatic work primarily in Bangladesh and elsewhere throughout Asia and the Pacific. The Officer will work remotely and will be expected to occasionally travel to Dhaka, Cox's Bazar and various districts and upazilas for GNWP activities (if public health and safety guidelines permit) to assist in facilitating meetings and workshops.

The Organization

The Global Network of Women Peacebuilders is a coalition of women and youth-led organizations from Africa, Asia and the Pacific, Latin America, Eastern and Western Europe, the Middle East and the Arab world—mostly in conflict-affected countries—that are actively involved in advocacy and action for the full and effective implementation of the UN Security Council Resolutions (UNSCR) on Women and Peace and Security (WPS), Youth and Peace and Security (YPS), Sustaining Peace, Gender-responsive Humanitarian Action and 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development.

GNWP amplifies women's and youth peacebuilders' voices for more sustainable and inclusive peace. In partnership with local communities affected by violent conflicts and humanitarian crises, GNWP implements programs that build peace locally, teach women and girls how to read and write, promote women and youth peacebuilders to be leaders and decision-makers and improve women's economic status. GNWP advocates with governments to implement laws and policies that promote and protect women's and youth's rights and work with men and gender equality allies to support women's empowerment, leadership and rights.

Description

The Program Officer for Bangladesh will be required to:

- Assist in the coordination and implementation of GNWP activities across Bangladesh; including attending and co-facilitating advocacy meetings and training workshops;
- Provide support for regional research projects, as well as draft and contribute to concept notes, activity reports, and other materials;
- Communicate with local and regional partners, network members from Bangladesh and Young Women+ Leaders for Peace (YWL) chapter in Bangladesh to support and amplify advocacy initiatives;
- Monitor and track UN Security Council activities on WPS; YPS; and Sustaining Peace, particularly as they relate to ongoing work in Bangladesh;
- Actively engage on social media platforms where GNWP is active (Twitter and Instagram) showcasing both in-country level programmatic work and global events relevant to GNWP and its partners;
- Communicate with GNWP members around the world and assist with online campaigns showcasing their work;
- Assist in preparations for high-level global, regional and local advocacy fora;
- Provide support in the promotion of various programs and projects related to the advocacy for the effective implementation of UNSCR 1325, 1820, 2250 and the supporting resolutions on WPS and YPS, as well as gender-responsive humanitarian action;
- Attend and contribute to coordination meetings, especially of GNWP's Asia and the Pacific team; and
- Work in a supportive, inclusive atmosphere.

Qualifications

- Undergraduate studies in Peace and/or Conflict Studies, Human Rights, Women's and Gender Studies, International Relations, or Global Affairs or equivalent certificate in Peace and Security or Humanitarian Action;
- Particular interest in implementing global policies and international laws at the national and local levels as well as amplifying the voices of grassroots women at the global level;
- Established connections with actors working in the humanitarian sector and working on WPS in Bangladesh;
- Experience working with Rohingya refugees is considered an asset;
- Professional written and oral proficiency in Bangla and English;
- Ability to work in a fast-paced environment, self-motivated and attentive to detail and accuracy;
- Excellent interpersonal, leadership and organizational skills;
- Ability to meet deadlines and keep commitments;
- Flexibility in terms of work hours to accommodate correspondence with colleagues, partners, and donors in different time zones;
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team; and
- A creative outlook, enthusiasm, and a fresh perspective.
